Reproduction rights are granted for only one usage in one publication, one edition. Additional editions and subsequent revised new editions will be considered upon request. Full documentation and ownership credit, as specified by the Museum, must accompany the reproduction. If applicable, photographer's credit must also be given. The reproduction may not be bled off the page or cropped in any way. If a detail is used, it must be noted in the caption. Nothing may be superimposed on the reproduction (i.e., lettering or tone or another image). The publisher is to provide the Museum with at least two copies of the publication in which the reproduction appears.
